

Circle of Protection Action

Join us in highlighting the importance of low-income programs at risk of severe cuts in the Supercommittee and appropriations budget process.

JOIN Faith leaders, parishioners, advocates, community leaders, and their constituents as they come together to join hands and create a human circle around Friendly Hands Ministries to call attention to the needs of the most vulnerable in our society.

Friendly Hands Ministries 225-41 East 118th Street
Nov. 16 at 11:40 a.m.

---

The Federation of Protestant Welfare Agencies (FPWA), Bread for the World-NY, Poverty Initiative, Sojourners along with other faith-based non-profits, churches and local activists will encircle Friendly Hands Ministries in East Harlem; this organization was started by local pastors and provides direct services to the community and participates in advocacy efforts to bring justice to East Harlem.

Contact: Onleilove Alston, FPWA at: oalston@fpwa.org or 212-801-1356, More info: www.fpwa.org