

UNION THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY 2010 FALL STUDENT ORIENTATION A PEOPLES TOUR OF WALL STREET REFLECTING ON RELIGION, WEALTH, AND POVERTY

Brought to You By The Poverty Initiative
www.povertyinitiative.org
Poverty Scholars Program

The Poverty Initiative welcomes Union's newest scholars!
Thursday, Sept 2, 1-5pm

Join the Poverty Initiative for a walking tour of the Financial District. Visit key sites in the history of the command center of global capitalism known universally as Wall Street.

Tour includes:

- New York Stock Exchange
- The House of Morgan
- The Wall Street Bull
- Site of the New York slave trade
- Monument to the Manhattan Purchase
- The Federal Reserve Bank of New York
- Museum of American Finance (time permitting)

Learn about the current economic crisis and the impact it's having not just on New York City but the entire country. Reflect on poverty and wealth and the theological imperative to end poverty and learn how you can get involved in the work of the Poverty Initiative.

We will meet at Union and travel down to Wall Street on the subway together.